Story

Once upon a time, in a small cottage within a dark forest, four mages and their beloved Princess spent a life in harmony. The mages were students at the renowned Hocus-Pocus Academy of Applied Magicks. To keep Princess safe during their study hours, they installed a giant lock on the front door.

One day, the blue mage forgot to lock the door and when everyone came back home after a long day, their Princess was gone.

A fairy beared terrible news: "Strange things are happening in the old Demon Fortress atop Pretzel Mountain!"

The four mages did not hesitate. After chanting a teleportation spell they had just learned at the Academy, they took off to the Demon Fortress...
