STORY

Human created an innovative technology called 'Nano Technology'. The technology finally created the Cube the self-proliferous Nano unit cluster.

However the Cube went out of control: it was rashly expanded and covered the earth with fatal storm of dust. As the raging storm swept across the world, most of living things were malformed or dead. The human race was divided into ‘Infected’, who was malformed, and 'Natural' who remained as human. The ‘Infected’ lost their mind and destroyed everything they see.

Yet some of the ‘Infected’ kept their mind and acquired special power. They distinctively called themselves a ‘Taker’ and those miserable mutants as a ‘Taken’. Now the ‘Takers’ get into the storm of the Cube for Redemption of human.
