3 SAINT MOTHER (YOU)

■After an unspeakable loss, a young maid traveled from her home in the west to meet with the Lake Gods of the north.
Hoping to get back what was prematurely taken from her, she released one of her younger brothers to the care of the Gods.
But even a new servant didn't please the Gods. They demanded a younger sacrifice to be made under the Eye of the Blood Moon!

After giving into the demands, she returned to release her last brother from the burden of the chains.
The Lake Gods then saw that she was indeed worthy of the title and powers of "Saint Mother", and made her the faithful servant deity, to act as the link between the mortals and the lake.

4 THE LAKE GODS

■Nobody knows where the stone sarcophagus originally came from. It has been known to act as a vessel for the mortals to give gifts for the Gods.
Some ancient tales say the face may even come to life after a worthy sacrifice has been made.
Although this may never be proven since the sarcophagus has been missing for almost a century.
