Getting Started

What you'll need

1) A blank writable DVD disc.

DVD-R

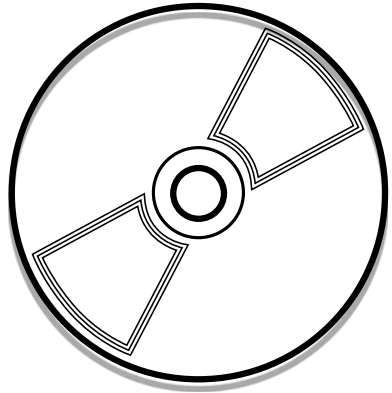

Write once; data can't be altered after burning.

DVD-RW

Rewritable disc format. Data can be erased and re-written after burning.

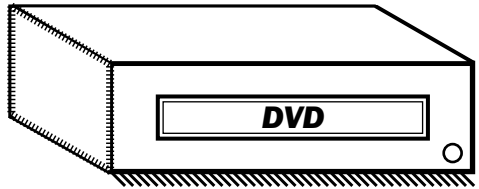

DVD+R and DVD+RW

This is a later format. They work the same, but can be slightly less compatible with certain DVD Players.

2) A DVD-writer drive

Some older PCs have these built-in. However, you can also purchase external devices that connect to your PC using USB.

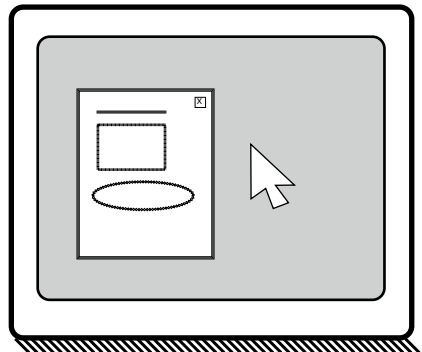

3) A Computer with DVD-Burning Software installed

On Windows, there are various free DVD burning tools available online. For example; Imgburn or CDBurnerXP

On Linux: Brasero / K3b

On macOS: Use 'Burn' under the file menu

Burning Instructions

Load the blank DVD into the tray.

Open your DVD burning software.
I.e Imgburn

When prompted to select the ISO file - choose BuitopiaDVD.iso

Burn the disc! Something special is happening - so don't interrupt the process!

Once complete, your DVD should be ready to play on most DVD Players including some games consoles with DVD playback capability.

Thank you for purchasing
